Comanche County does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, political affiliation, marital status, veteran status, handicap status, or any other legally protected status.

When filing out the application, please print or type an answer to every question clearly and completely. All questions must be answered truthfully. The applications for employment do not mean an employment contract is being offered. Comanche County may change wages, benefits, and conditions of employment at any time.

NOTE: Based on the department you are applying to, they may require pre-employment examinations to determine whether you are qualified to perform the essential functions of the job. These examinations could include background, drug screening, and various comprehension tests, such as listening, spelling, and typing.
