

Inmate Property

All personal property that is in the inmate's possession at the time of his/her incarceration, which is not considered allowable property, will be locked in a secure area of the facility during the inmate's stay at the Comanche County Detention Center. The property will be released to the inmate upon his/her release from the facility.

Rules for Family

Under some conditions, family members may be allowed to pick up the personal property of an inmate, provided the inmate provides written permission to CCDC to release his/her property to a particular individual. These special requests are reviewed on a case by case basis and are granted at the will of the Comanche County Detention Center's administrator.

DO NOT

Please do not attempt to mail or "drop by" personal property (such as radios, clothing, toiletries, etc.) as they will not be accepted. There is a limited amount of property that an inmate may receive during his/her stay, which is outlined under the "Money & Mail" heading link on this page. All other items (such as personal hygiene, undergarments, snacks, etc.) can be purchased by the inmate under our commissary system. More information on providing funds to an inmate for these commissary purchases can be found under the "Money & Mail" heading link on this page.

If you have any questions, you may call the Detention Center at 580-250-1902.
